BISHOPSTOKE PARISH COUNCIL PRESS RELEASE – JULY 2019

Virgin Media

Virgin Media will be working in Bishopstoke over the next several months installing cables for their broadband services. They have committed to keeping the Council in touch with where they are working and how long it will take.

Climate Change Emergency

Bishopstoke Parish Council has declared a Climate Change and Environmental Emergency. A Working Group is being established to consider how Bishopstoke can best respond to this emergency and provide an action plan for the Council to reach its goal of carbon neutrality by 2025.

Eastleigh Mela

Bishopstoke Parish Council would like to offer their congratulations to the organisers of the Eastleigh Mela. The day was full of enjoyable events and activities and was enjoyed by many people from around the Borough.

Bishopstoke Carnival

The dates for the Carnival Quizzes have been set. The first quiz is at the Anglers Inn on 31st July, followed by Steam Town Brew Co. on Sunday 11th August, the Toby Carvery on Wednesday 21st August, the Anglers Inn again on Wednesday 28th August and finishing with a return to Steam Town on Sunday 1st September.

The next meeting of the Parish Council will be on Tuesday 24 September 2019 at 7.30pm in the Parish Council Office, Riverside, Bishopstoke. For all other meeting details and information please visit the Parish website.
